Apologies to any riders who found some section particularly difficult, the extreme frost made some sections more difficult than had been anticipated.

Wow ! it is 11.25pm and I have just finished the results - Thank you to everyone for your patience I knew it would be a challenge, but I had never realised just how much work Angela and Chris do, there is an amazing team of 'helpers behind every trial' Thank you. Thank you to Angela for all your help and support today. With many thanks to the Landowners and to the observers for all their help.
