

Scott Trial Centenary Charity Action 2014

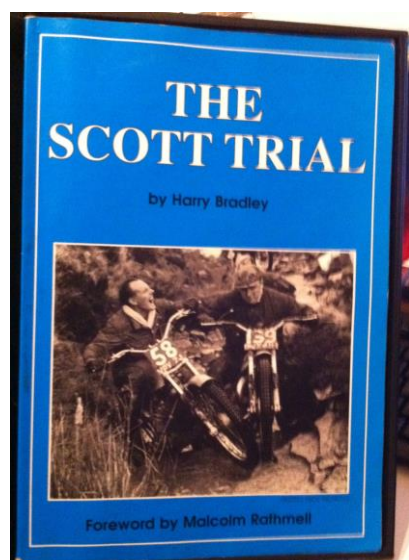

At this year's Scott Trial Auction we have been generously donated some amazing unique items, and we are hopeful with your help that we can Auction and raise as much money as possible for the Scott Charities. Below are listed some of these special items, and if you would like to submit a bid, please do so via chris.wallis@richmondmotorclub.com. up to 6pm on the 18th October 2014. Or there will be bid slips available on the start field which can be filled out and left at the Secretaries Tent, or of course you can come and join in the auction at Richmond Cricket Club where the Auction will take place. We will also be hosting a 'Special Motor Sport Tombola' on the night so please come and support us. We have some very special items for you to buy !
